A REAL THRILLER

hearsed by All-Star Patrolmen, Presents Life in the Tenderloin as It Is Lived.

CAPT. COTTRELL HOLDS CENTRE OF THE STAGE.

Only Uniformed Men Figure in Male Roles-Play to Be Presented Tuesday for Benefit of Police Band.

A select cotorie of Our Finest are rehearsing "Under the Green Lamps," a thrilling comedy-drama, which will be ented at the Grand Central Palace next Tuesday for the benefit of the Police Band.

Only policemen figure in the male roles of the cast, with Capt. Cottrell. of the Tenderioin station, absorbing the rays of the spot light.

tractive parts and a series of spirited rehearsals are under way. The play fairly throbs with realism, and those who have witnessed the rehearsals declare that the patrolmen are put to no histrionic strain to say their little so terribly shocked that they were forced to "run them in." says one of the delicate lines. The damsels are about as coy as the landlady of a sallor's boarding-house. Their repartee draws crimson blushes to the grizzled cheek of the building sergeant and they are siderracked to cells in the rear, whither they go as if it was the'r usual destination. They are followed by Gethegoodstein, the station-house bondsman, who carries himself as if he owned the station-house and held chantel mortgages on all the officials

Sparkles with Police Wit.

In the telling this may appear crude but in the acting it sparkles with police wit, and will undoubtedly bring the thousand or more policemen who witness the production to their feet with enthusiasm. It is followed by several similarly delicate passages, the climax of humor coming with the arraignment o Johnson Potter, a victim of the non treating rules of the Subway Tayern. Johnson Potter's jag has all the weird ness of a debauch of a full-grown Subbe. He rolls in three cheers for Bishop Potter and the expense he was spared in accumulating

"Under the Green Lamps," Re- Operating in the Guise of Telephone Inspectors Thieves Rob Houses of Sisters of Mercy in Nearby Cities.

> BELIEVED SAME GANG THAT WORKED NEW YORK.

Hartford and Stamford Convents Visited and Methods Identical with Those Used in This City Are Employed.

Thieves who have been operating un der the guise of telephone inspectors in this city, have transferred their base of operations to Stamford Conn., and other towns along the New York Centra' and Hudson River Railroad, and are now robbing Sisters of Mercy and convents.

For months it has been known to Inspector McClusky that such a gang of thieves was at work in New York. Mys hotels and private houses by men who have gained entrance by representing that they were telephone inspectors. These same thieves have now turned their attention, the police believe, to the robbery of convents, where admission is easily gained because of the trustfulness of the Sisters.

Inspector McClusky has just learned were three men concerned in this robbery. The first called at the house up before the action begins and a the police of Hartford kept it secret, cross-circuit on a third rail is a slug- hoping to catch the thieves. The three gish spark to the dynamic palps that men next turned up in Stamford. This keep the stage boards smoking. The creators of the play have left out none of the rawness of station-house life and in your first peep you see four young women haled before a gruff scream.

The ladies have been arrested for firting with precinct sleuths who were so terribly shocked that they were Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN: I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, that the New York thieves have robbed dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered unthat the New York theyes have robbet the Convent of the Bisters of Mercy told agonv. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkin Hartford of more than $300. There ham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and and was admitted. On the outside were started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my two others, keeping watch. Suspecting opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally l It is but a one-act playlet and the nothing, the Sisters practically gave the man the freedom of the conventation." The curtain is not halfway was discovered the man the freedom of the conventation.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be a fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality—if it is painful something is wrong. Don't take nar-cotics to deaden the pain, but remove the cause—perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb displacements, or the development of a tumor. Wh tever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it.

If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass, and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me tor years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and I am now enjoying the best of health, and am most grateful, and only too pleased to indorse such a great remedy."-MISS JENNIE L. ED-WARDS, 604 H St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.
